TOTAL SOLAR ECLIPSE
CEDAR COVE RANCH, TEXAS

APRIL 7 - 9, 2024
ABOUT THE TRIP

- View an Astronomical Wonder

  April 8, 2024: Watch as the sun transcends into darkness at 1:38pm, with totality occurring after 4 minutes and 27 seconds!

- Learn From Leading Astronauts & Experts

  Feed your curiosity with talks and experiences led by astronauts Rusty Schweickart, Dr. Ed Lu and science fiction author Dr. David Brin at a stunning Texas ranch.

- Nature and Solar Activities

  Enjoy all the property has to offer, from nature walks and swimming to kayaking, fishing, and archery. Take advantage of various educational and celestial activities, curated to help you prepare for the main event: the total solar eclipse!

Cedar Cove Ranch sits directly in the path of total darkness.

Enjoy this rare opportunity to see one of the world's most incredible wonders with two former NASA astronauts and a best-selling science fiction novelist. Join an intimate group, hosted by the B612 Foundation, on a 2-night trip, in the path of totality right outside of Dallas, Texas, where you'll experience the eclipse in the breathtaking surroundings of a nature ranch.

The next total solar eclipse in North America is not until 2045, so don't miss this opportunity to witness such a remarkable experience close to home and curated by an expert team.
