Nepal and Bhutan
Myths and Legends of the Himalayas
with Domkhar and Ura Yakchoe
Festivals in Bhutan

April 14 – 30, 2018
Dear Traveler,

Nepal is a land of snow peaks and Sherpas, monasteries and mantras, and remains the cultural center of the Himalayas. The Kathmandu Valley offers a unique experience with many hidden backstreet shrines and sublime temple art. In Pokhara Valley we’ll enjoy a spectacular Himalayan panorama of the Annapurna massif.

Bhutan is a land of soaring peaks, alpine meadows, and exotic flora and fauna. Its jealously guarded isolation, awe-inspiring Himalayas, ancient culture and friendly people make it a magical place even for the most intrepid of travelers. The main religion is Vajrayana Buddhism, and the teachings of this spiritual tradition influence all aspects of life in the kingdom.

Among the many highlights, our exclusive program coincides with the Domkhar Tsechu and Ura Yakchoe festivals in the remote Bumthang region. Many special visits have been arranged, including a meeting with a Bhutanese family in their farmhouse and a visit with a senior monk in a monastery.

We have worked closely with our travel partner to design an engaging and unique journey. We hope you can join us on this exclusive Commonwealth Club trip. Space is limited, so we encourage you to make reservations now!

Sincerely,

Kristina Nemeth
Director of Club Travel
