Dear Traveler,

In the often quoted poem by Robert Frost, "The Road Not Taken," the poet awakened the determination in many to choose the road less traveled. The poem sparked the quest for adventure in those wishing to experience more from life. Intrepid world travelers manifest this idea by seeking out destinations less traveled, such as Scandinavia and the Baltic Sea.

On this powerhouse program — co-sponsored with several educational organizations including the National Trust for Historic Preservation, the University of California Berkely and the World Affairs Council — visit six countries and experience a kaleidoscope of cultures at the ideal time of year. Spend 11 days and 10 nights exploring Sweden, Estonia, Finland, Latvia, Poland and Denmark aboard the luxurious, exclusively chartered World Navigator.

Along with iconic sites, such as the canals of leafy Copenhagen and the shipyard of Gdansk, discover those less-traveled locales. In Tallinn, Estonia, walk through the medieval city center, which has remained virtually unchanged for 600 years. In Finland, explore the Old Wooden Town of Porvoo, or indulge in a quintessential restorative Finnish sauna ritual.

These excursions and more provide the perfect opportunity to take the road less traveled, which will surely make all the difference. Book today!
